Dear Faculty and Students:

On behalf of the US Institute of Diplomacy and Human Rights, it is our pleasure to invite you to the Second Annual Diplomacy and Human Rights Summit. We would like to encourage all students to participate. All students with an interest in Diplomacy and Human Rights are welcome to join us virtually for an invaluable experience with expert speakers selected from around the globe. The Summit will be livestreamed on our Facebook Page on Thursday November, 18th and Friday November, 19th from 11am to 2pm (EST). Introductions will be made promptly at 11am. This year's themes include: Women's Rights, Human Rights Education, Religious Inclusion, Economic Diplomacy, and Cultural Diplomacy.

Keynote speakers will be announced prior to the event.

The purpose of the summit is to enlighten students who are interested in Diplomatic and Human Rights issues through a varied and nuanced discussion from a variety of positionalities. Students will have the ability to ask questions to our speakers and network with other students during the live stream in the comment section. We will also be providing participation certificates to all students in attendance.
